e. Four representatives of the Information Systems Security Group who are involved in the TSCADS program met on 11 December with OCR monitors of the ADSTAR (Automated Document Storage and Retrieval) system to review Top Secret collateral controls in the system. The discussion focused on maintaining the same controls on copies of Top Secret documents produced by ADSTAR in the OCR library that are currently applicable to other Agency Top Secret documents. These controls will include the use of logs, audit trails, and document control cover sheets. (U)
